Further information, terms and conditions

The intensive seminar will combine academic presentations, hands-on workshops, case studies, and site visits with experts working in museums, archives, libraries, and research universities. The seminar will be an opportunity to learn about heritage collections, buildings and monuments, their histories and stories, conservation and cataloguing, heritage and memory, exhibition and presentation, stakeholders, collaboration, and societal relevance.

Conditions

Applicants must be professionals in a Jewish heritage institution in Europe, with less than 7 years of experience, or recent or current graduate students in a European university working in the field of Jewish heritage or contemplating a career in this sector.

Fluency in English is a must.

Participants are expected to attend actively the whole seminar, from Sunday, 29th August in the afternoon until Friday, 1st September at 14.00.

Participants must cover their travel to and from Amsterdam, as well as dinners. Accommodation, lectures, lunches and site visits are supported by the grant.

Deadline

Each applicant should email the following 4 documents to b.sion@rothschildfoundation.eu by Friday, 30th June 2023.

1. Application questionnaire
2. Curriculum Vitae
3. Letter of intent, stating why s/he wants to attend and how it could benefit their career
4. Recommendation from a director, supervisor or academic advisor
